NEW DORP HIGH SCHOOL

New Dorp High School

nineteen-eighty

When we first began our years at New Dorp, we hardly thought about graduation. This goal was too far away. The months rolled by and soon we began our sophomore year, then suddenly our year as juniors. As our goal of graduation loomed nearer, the pace seemed to quicken. Before we had time to realize it, our senior year had arrived. Our goal was now within reach, it was almost here, almost attained. Our senior year sped by, dotted with memorable moments — Senior Day, the Prom, and then — graduation. The time that had once seemed so far off, had arrived, our goal had been achieved. Yet we realized that this was to be another beginning — a beginning far more important than any that had come before. This ending begins a life of new goals to hope for and to achieve; each of these goals will be more precious than the last.

sometimes I'm almost there,
sometimes I fly like an eagle,
sometimes I'm deep in despair.

FACULTY

PRINCIPAL

TO THE CLASS OF 1980

As the years you will have spent with us at New Dorp High School draw to a close, all of us are overwhelmed by a plethora of emotions. Those of us on the staff have feelings of both regret and delight. We remember with much joy the years of work and many achievements of the members of the Class of 1980 in all academic fields, in sports, in the arts and in service to school and community. On the other hand, we also share a feeling of sadness at your departure. It has been rewarding to work with you, to share the good times and the bad, and now, as the Class of 1980 takes its leave of New Dorp, feelings of nostalgia and longing fill our hearts. We shall miss you all and we wish you well. You go on to a new life and a bright future.

The theme of this year's Argonaut is "beginnings." It is a singularly appropriate theme. While your graduation from New Dorp seems to be an end of things, it is a commencement more than a termination. It is true that you will no longer be part of New Dorp's Spring Festivals, its dances, the homecomings, Senior Days, the Art Festivals, our football games, our basketball games, our baseball games, the Science Fairs, and the host of activities which made life at New Dorp fulfilling and enriching. But two factors which developed during your years here hold the promise of rich "beginnings" ahead. One of these is the education you received and the other is the friends and associations you have made.

Each of you was trained to develop skills which will enable you to enrich your lives in new careers, and new associations. As you go ahead to advanced education or to rewarding jobs or to the establishment of a new life for yourself, you will look back with much fondness to your years at New Dorp and all you have learned here. The other factor, the friendships you have developed, will be a part of your consciousness for the rest of your life. New Dorp has always been a "family" school. Each of us cares about the other, and the love and respect we have for each other enriches our lives. You will long remember your friends here at New Dorp. Your growth as a caring, interested human being will be the most valued memory of your years at New Dorp.

Please accept the best wishes of all of us in the New Dorp family. The Class of 1980 was a wonderful class and we shall miss you very much. May you go on to the successful "beginnings" of a bright and glorious future. In one sense you will never leave us. You shall always be part of a wonderful memory.

If you can give as well as take
And hold your head up high,
If you can keep the joy of youth
From ever running dry,

If you can open up your heart
With love that long endures
Then peace—and all of life's sweet gifts
Will happily be yours.

SENIORS

I'm sailing away —
set an open course
for the Virgin sea.
I've got to be free —
free to face the life
that's ahead of me.

On board
I'm the captain,
so climb aboard,
we'll search for tomorrow
on every shore,
and I'll try, oh Lord, I'll try . . .
to carry on.

Argonaut 1980 is a montage of memories, of friendships enjoyed, of places frequented, and events experienced.

It is a reflection of the knowledge we have gained, the growth we have undergone, and the goals we have met.

It is an echo of our youth and a preface to the challenge of adulthood.

The creation of this yearbook is a result of the many dedicated and industrious staff members, and the numerous others who volunteered their time and their efforts.

The Editorial Staff of Argonaut 1980, and Mr. Robert Lonergan, Yearbook Advisor, thank all those who so freely devoted their time and talents.

To Sir With Love . . .

There are, we've noticed, certain special people in this school without whom daily life would be not a life, but an existence — a dull, drab and extremely empty existence. One such person is our yearbook advisor, Sir Robert A. Lonergan. Sir (as he is affectionately known by all who frequent his private sanctuary, The Program Office) is known for his constant commitment, patience (well . . .) and support. We, the Argonaut staff of 1980, thank him for always being there and always caring. Without him, this yearbook would have not been possible.

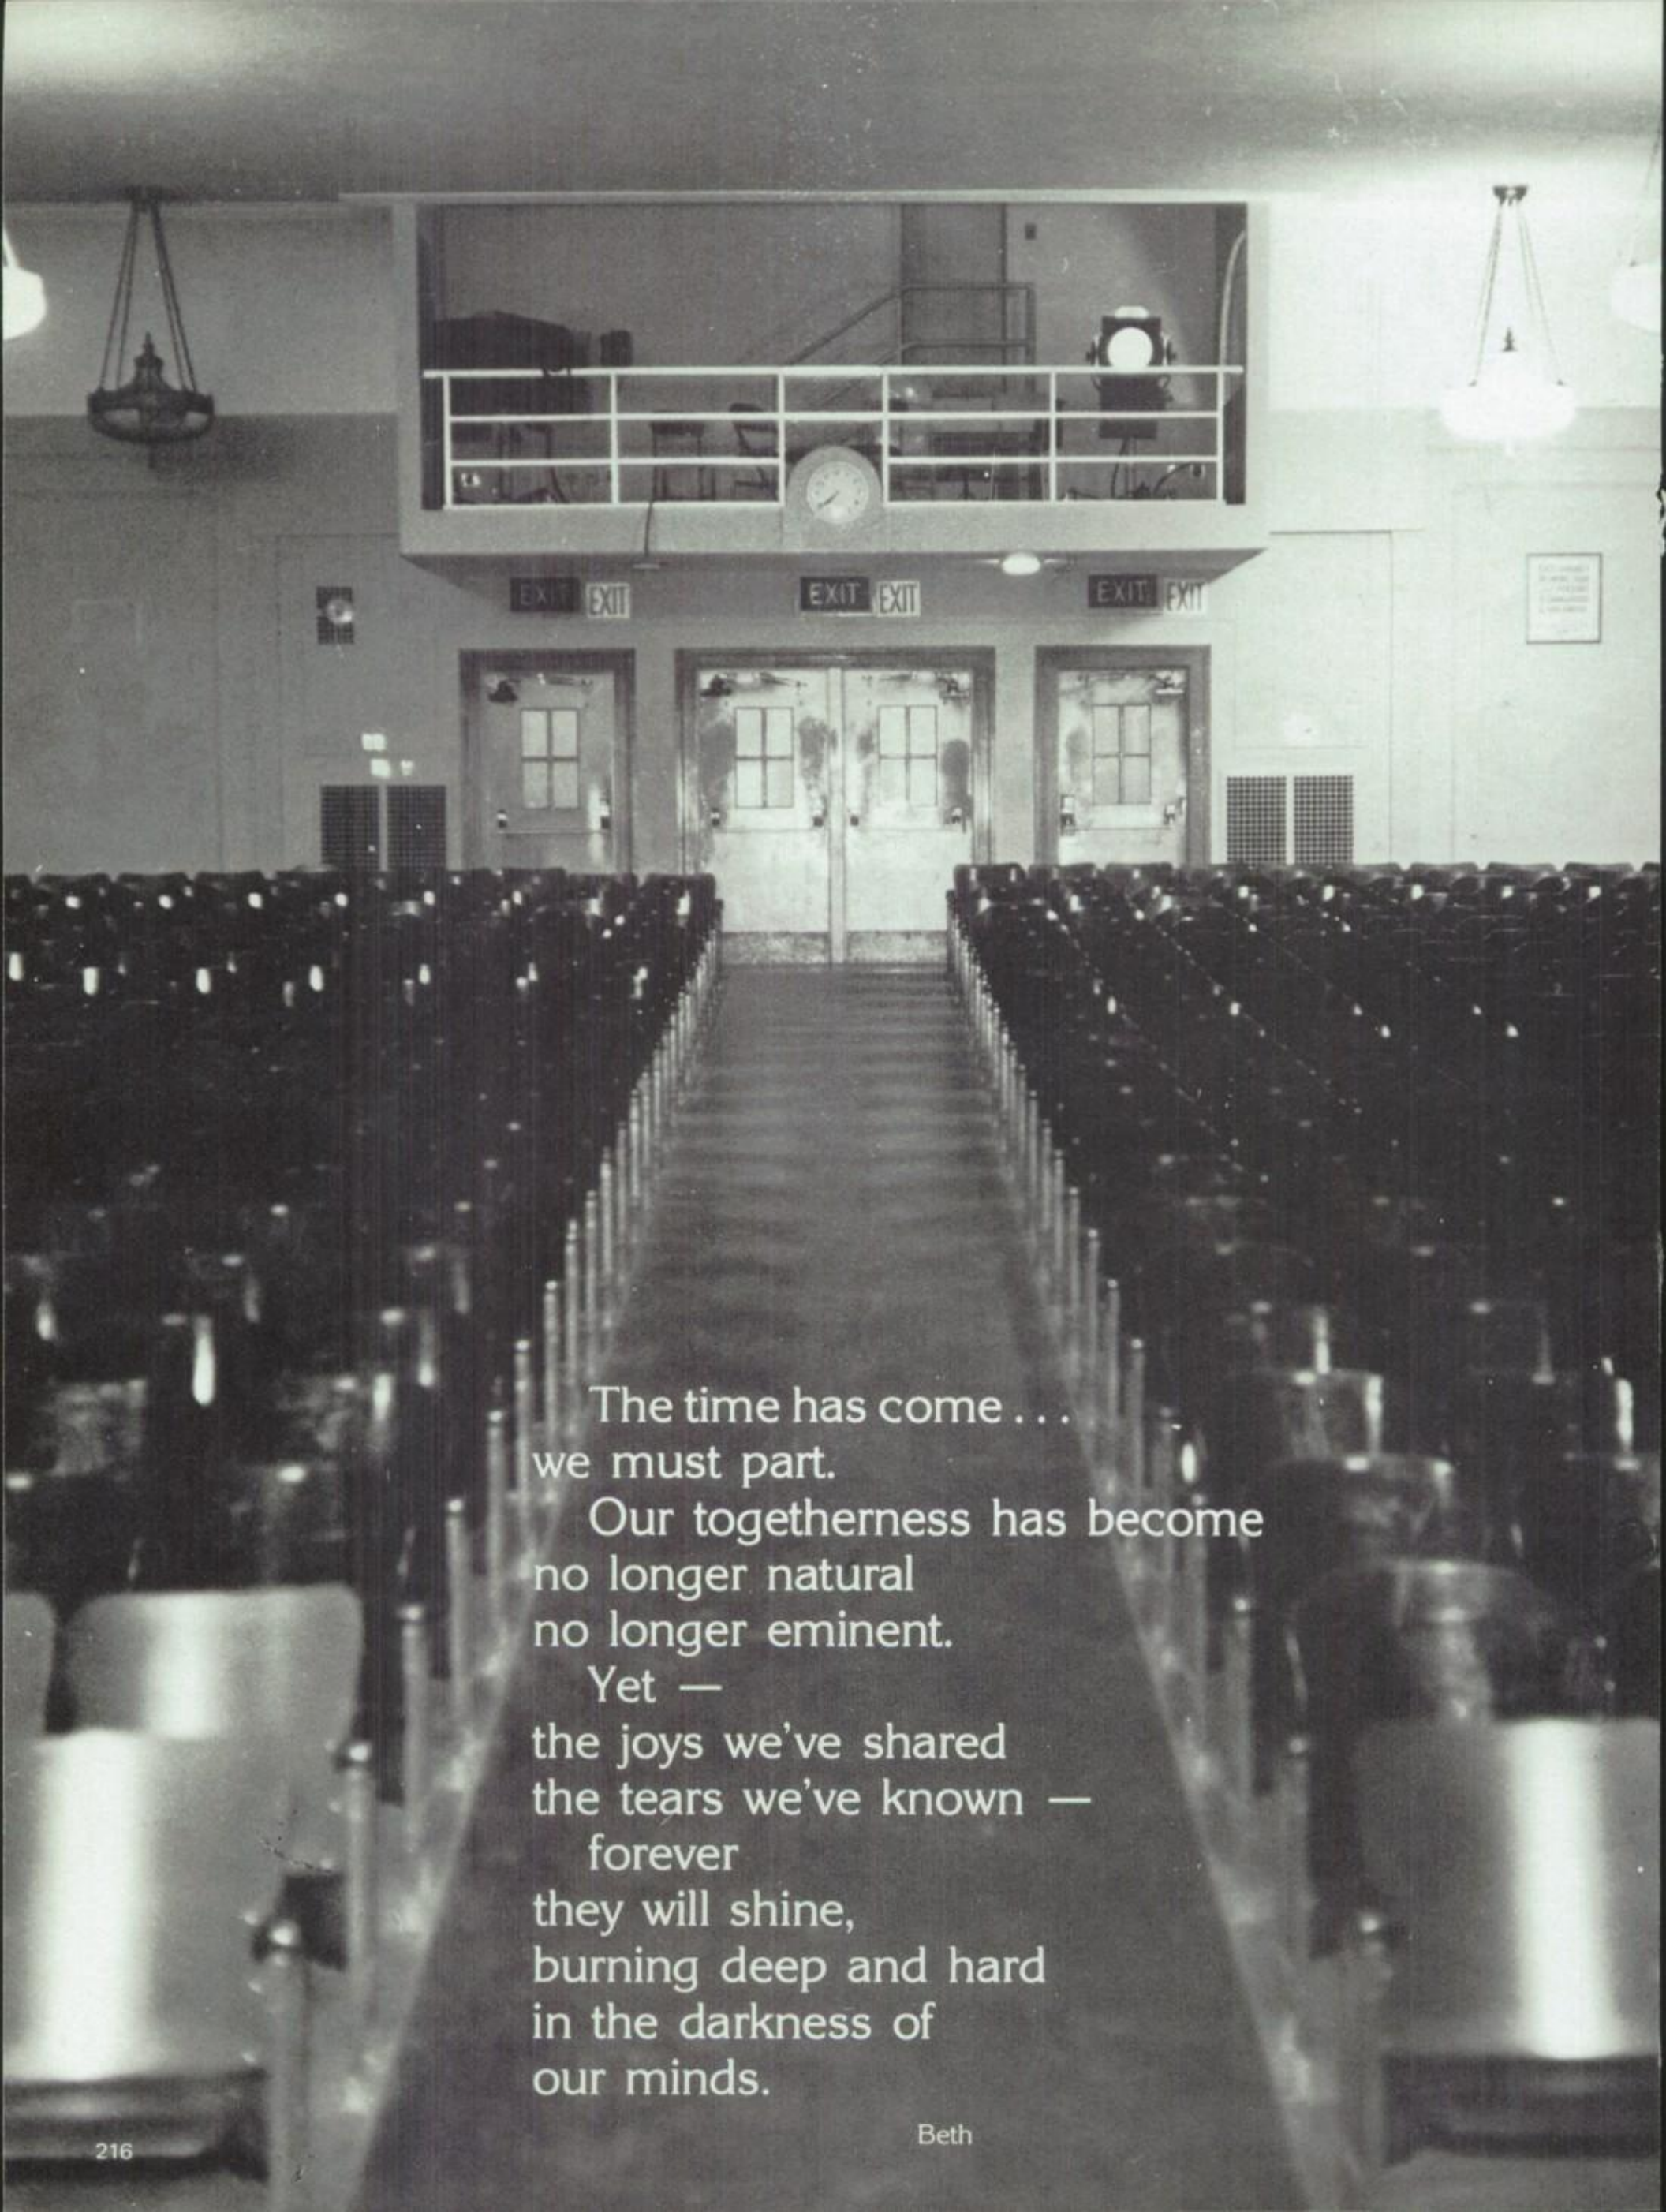
GET SOME IDEA
CH YOU DESERVE



The time has come . . .
we must part.
Our togetherness has become no longer natural
no longer eminent.
Yet —
the joys we've shared the tears we've known — forever
they will shine,
burning deep and hard in the darkness of our minds.
